WARE TO MORRIS PARK.

A DECLISION AFFECTING OVER 3,000 LAW

NEW-YORK, NEW-HAVEN AND HARTFORD

RAILROAD SUSTAINED BY THE GENERAL TERM.

The case of Palm against the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, to recover a penalty of 850 for a charge of an excessive rate of fare upon the special trains running to the Morris Park racecourse, has been decided by the General Term of the Superior Court against the plaintiff—this decision re-versing a decision by Judge Truax at Trial Term. The plaintiffs in over 8,000 penalty suits have thus received a serious set-back. This case was considered by all of the claimants for the penalty of $30 as the test case upon the principles involved in the litigation, and its decision has, there-fore, been looked forward to by them with great in-

In view of the large number of litigants, the history

Morris Park race-track is on the Harlem River and Port Chester road, which is under lease to the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, but which was organized under the general railroad laws of the State of New-York. The statute authorizing the formation of railroads in this State provides that the rate of fare shall not exceed 3 cents a mile. When Mr. Morris and his associates built the Norris Park track they made a request for the construction of a large yard and a convenient access to their race. track from a new terminus, and it was found necessary to set apare a large tract of land at the Harlem River

At the request of the racetrack authorities a service was organized, including sixty passenger coaches and eight locomotives, which were assembled at Harlem River, to furnish additional accommodations to attend the races. The starting place at Harlem River was separate and distinct from the regular Harlem River separate and distance from the regular station and was well advertised and placarded to that effect so that no one could mistake the special from the regular service, and the terminus at Morris Park was off the established line of the railroad and reached by means of a spur track about half a mile in length. The company provided not only regular time table accommodations at Van Nest, the station nearest the racetrack, but from a different place to a different place, organized a special service for which a special charge of 25 cents each way (56 cents for the round trip) was established. This special charge was made with the acquiescence of the receirack authorities.

The management of the read then consulted counsel and were advised that the statute limiting the ordinary rate of passage to 3 cents a mile was not intended for special service in special trains on special days from special stations to special stations as in the present Upon the advice of counsel the 50-cent tariff

No one, however, was obliged to take these trains for extra cars were attached to the regular trains at the regular rate of fare between the stations on the Har-River branch. As a matter of fact many people estired to go to the races in the trains that made voluntarily took the trains from the special and at Harlem River and paid 50 cents for the round ip. But certain lawyers in this city made an exare canvass of the people who had voluntarily id the 50 cents for the extra accommodations and tained from them their supposed technical right to in the penalty of $50 provided in the Gentle Statutes, in case of violation of the law, and brought several suits against the company for an alleged excess of fare. One or two cases some of the lower courts and judgment rendered against the company. Pending final ony reduced the fair last summer to 35 cent ego are being tried and will be tried and will sled until the court of highest resort decides sixtute is applicable to cases of this kind. DELEGATES PLEUGED TO SECRECY.

A DIVISION SAID TO EXIST IN THE AMATEUR ABHLETIC UNION.

Middle interest is felt in the action taken at the recent joint conference of the Amateur Athletic Union and the League of American Wheelmen. The five delegates representing each organization pledged them selves to reveal nothing to anyhody for the present Outside of the committees, even the officials of the different athletic clubs are ignorant whether there will be peace or war in the athletic world. George W. Carr, the president of the Manhattan Club, was seen yester day, but he refused to disclose what had been done at

An Amateur Union official vesterday said: "If you wants to predict that nothing will be done at the next meeting of the same committees, the prediction will come very nearly, if not entirely, true. They will have a long stege settling the amateur athletic ex-pense question. There will also be more trouble be fore the suspended wheelmen matter is settled up. I do not behave that anything will be accomplished until after the meeting of the National Association of

It was said yesterday that the Amateur Athletic Union is divided against itself, and if such a condition exists a speedy adjustment of the trouble is impossible. Each delegate seems to have his own idea at ble. Each delegate seems to have his own idea about the paying of amateur athletic expenses. Each of the union delegates has put his views before Charman Charles F. Maihewson, while the wheelmen have left their side of the case in the hands of James R. Dunn, Roth men are havers and may in time be able to fix up a truce which will be acceptable to all the conflicting interests. Messrs, Dunn and Mathewson will confer together and if they can straighten out the athletic troubles will issue a call for another joint confection.

GUNNERY OFFICERS FOR THE NAVY. dmiral Walker, commandant of the Squadron of Evo Author, is to have another heutenant, a gunnery officer assigned to his personal staff, which now numbers three officers. Admiral Gherardi, commandant of the North Atlantic Squadron, has four officers on acting as secretary, another as flag lieutement, third as fleet gunnery officer and the other as aid. I is proposed to have an officer assigned to each ship charge of the entire battery. This work has heretofore been done by the navigating officer, who has fore been done by the havigating onner, who has practically nothing to do in that line when in port except to wind his chronometer every day. If the battery is taken away from him he will have merely nominal duty. As the executive officer has little to do when the vessel is at sea, there is talk of making an improvement in the service on shipboard by making him the navigator also.

WELL KNOWN ATHLETES TO BE TRIED. A meeting of the Athletic Union investigation Commit-tee will be held at the Grand Union Hotel to-night. An-other effort will be made to prove or disprove the charges of professionalism made against the great amateur athletes Queckberner, Copeland and Mitchell. The original charges against Nickerson have been withdrawn. The trouble arose at the Amateur Union champtonship meeting held as Washington on Grana. 11

Some propie well informed on local baseball matters after that there will be no indoor baseball at the Madison aftern that there will be no indoor baseball at the Madison Square Garden. There is a diversity of opinion among the stockholders of the New-York club about playing the games. President Day, newever, says that the games will be played and they probably will be if the garden can be secured. Two games will be played at the 7th Regiment armory on Saturday night. The first game will be started at 7 o'clock, and will be between the Company D and Company H affect. The second game will begin promptly at p. p. and will be played between the Company A and

GENEROUS FRIENDS OF PHILOSOPHY.

A PERMANENT FUND FOR THE OHRISTIAN IN-STITUTE-THE RELIGIOUS FUTURE

OF AMERICA. The members of the American Institute of Christian Philosophy listened with evident interest to a paper by the Rev. George L. Thompson, of Bridgeport, Conn., last night in Hamilton Hall, Columbia College. The subject was "The Religions Future of the Nation." Among other things he said : problem is the transfer of the balance of power from the rural to the city population of the land. Closely allied to the foregoing condition is another feature in the public trend of our times which ought to be a cource of great solicitude to the teachers of religion and public morality, the power of great corporations in controlling legislation by the purchase of legislative votes, as was done so shamelessly in the last Legislature of my own State, where one corporati spent $50,000, I understand, but was beaten by an other, which could spend more. Further, we are raising in these days in the place of patriots a crop of politicians, whose ambition is party advantage rather than public good, allowing the worst elements to exercise a dominant influence in politics, and a scarcely less one in legislation and government The agent through which these baser elements work, all powerful and well night omnipresent, is the saloon at once our scourge, our curse and our shame. An other fact not to be overlooked is the aggressive work of Romanism against the institutions which have been the fruit, as they have been the support, of Profestantism in the United States.

" But, netwithstanding this uncertainty in the cour of human events, as we turn to another quarter of the horizon we find greater encouragement. The applied Gospel to human society is the cure of all its ills, as the power of Christ, by touch or word, was the fountain of healing in his day. The advantage of our situation may be briefly stated in these points: In dependence of the civil power; increase of strength to dependence of the civil power; increase of strenath to the Church and State applied to the support of re-ligious institutions; the increase of the Church's forces by revivals of religion; development of American Christianity, and its practical and moral aspects. The Rev. Dr. Joshab Strong, the general secretary of the Evangellical Alliance, discussed the paper. It was amounced that the Institute had received an endowment fund of $16,000, about half of which had been given by Cornelius Vanderbilt, one of its trustees, and the rest in contributions of $100 each from different members.

SUGAR TRUST RECEIVERS. DISAGREE.

NOT YET READY TO REPORT TO THE SUPREMB COURT.

S. V. White, one of the receivers of the Sugar Trust, sent out over the tape yesterday a denial of the story that he and his associates, General H. W. Slocum and H. O. Havemeyer, were about to make their report to the supreme Court, and in addition said:

"I do not know that one report is to be made, nor do I know that there will be two reports. We held a onference yesterday, but failed to agree on the I do not know of any astounding revelations nd done at the conference I do not think it would and done at the conference 1 to not the proper of courteous in me to say. It is generally believed in the Street that the differences of opinion between the receivers will result two reports, one signed by Messre, White and Slovani, and the other by Mr. Havemerer, who, in a measure, represent the Trust itself.

PETITIONING FOR RAPID TRANSIT.

HARLEN PEOPLE URGE THE LEGISLATURE TO

A petition which has for its object the promotion of rapid transit reform appeared in Harlem on Monday and is now being extensively circulated for signatures. Within thirty days the petition will be presented to the Legislature at Albany. In the view of the petitioners, the clevated railroad corporations should be forced to acquire private property for switching purposes and extend the switches between the uptown tracks of the road into third tracks for the operation of express trains. It is urged that the present system of rapid transit connecting Harlem with the lower parts and business centre of the city is altogether inadequate, and that accommodation would be afforded by the said corporations if the Legislature amended the laws gov erning them. Unless the elevated raffroads, say the petitioners, are extended over the streets and avenue now occupied by them, they will always be inadequate to meet the increasing demand for rapid transit. The petitioners argue that inasmuch as the present system would be required in order to construct a third track secure the necessary speed in travelling. The switch are now used for storing cars at night and at othe hours when the business of the road does not requir the express trains should run south in the morning and north in the evening. They are not forgetful of the fact that the station at Ninety-ninth-st, is in the middle of the track, and they do not explain how the expre train passengers are to be taken up or landed. It regard to the Bowery, where the up and down track are separated by the width of the broad thoroughfare, they propose that a third track should be built in the middle of the read as far as Canalst, where the switches are resumed.

"The additional facilities thus described," says the petitian, "could be obtained without cost to the tax payers of the city, and the city might derive a revenue from them should your honorable body require the corporation controlling the said elevated roads to pay into the city treasury a reasonable percentage of its receipts in return for the increased privilegs that would be afforded." are separated by the width of the broad thoroughfare

William Finnegan, who was asleep on a barge nearby at the time, and was awakened by the woman's screams, took the stand yesterday. He testified that he heard the noise, but went to sleep again and did not get up until 7 a. m.

Didn't you tell me yesterday," asked Assistant District Attorney Macdona, in astonishment, "that you got up at once and saw the woman and McGlinnis?"

By deft cross-examination, Mr. Macdona learned that the prisoner had been drinking with McGinnis's father in a liquor store during recess. Recorder smyth at once ordered that the witness be sent to the House of Detention, and will act on his case to-day. The trial of McGinnis will go on to-day.

FIGHT WITH AN OYSTER SCHOONER.

SHOPS EXCHANGED WITH A VIRGINIA STEAMER -COMPLAINTS FROM MARYLAND OYSTERMEN. Baltimore, Jan. 6 (Special).-The Virginia oyster police steamers are waging war on the dredgers along the State line between Maryland and Virginia in the Chesapeake Bay. Their action has stirred up considerable feeling among Maryland oystermen, who charge that the Virginia officers are exceeding their authority in at-tacking Maryland boats when not on the Virginia side of the line. News reached here to-day of a fight be-tween the Virginia steamer Chesapeake, Captain Seth Foster, and the schooner C. W. Keoch. When the pelice came up with the schooner the crew were ordered arrender, but they brought out their muskels and how fight, at the same time trying to get away. A number of shots were exchanged and Albert Ketzman -ailor on the dredging vessel, was hadly wounded After learning that they had wounded a man the police would not take the schooner, though they could easily have captured it. They did, however, take the chooner Joseph W. Brookes, caught on the line, and, placing the crew under arrest, towed the vessel to the Virginia shore. The Maryland Police Navy has had little trouble with dredgers this season, and what ar-rests have been made for illogal dredging have been without frouble.

When called to take the stand, Archer, facing Judge owler, said that with all deference to the court he declined to be sworn or to answer any questions in was steadfast in his determination not to say anything. Realizing fully that any statement from him injurious to the case of his bondsmen, Judge Powler declared it to be his duty to testify in the interest of the state, but the old man only shook his head. Then said the Judge: "I would charge you with contempt of court but that you are already serving a term in state prison, to which institution I remaind you." The defaulter was then taken back to the penitentiary.

CANADIANS TO EXAMINE SCHOOL BUILDINGS. E. W. Aothy, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Montreal, accompanied by the school architect and of the school commissioners of the same city, called upon Superintendent Jasper, of this city, on Monday and examined several school buildings. A number of new school buildings are to be built soon in Montreal. and the superintendent and his assistants wish to examine the school houses in this and other cities before deciding upon the plans. The Canadians were much impressed with the building at One hundred and sixty-third st. and Fagle ave. Mr. Asthy said, in fact, that he had never seen so perfect a school building. It is probable that he will get many suggestions from the work of Superintendent Debevoice.

23 EAST 14TH ST., NEW YORK.

Dr. Charles Insice Partice, the college historian and dean of the medical faculty of the University of the City of New York, has published a catalogue of the graduates and officers of that department. The catalogue is as complete as possible, and contains full lists of the graduates and officers of the university since its establishment, in 1841. According to the author, fortynine classes have been graduated. The graduates num-ber 5,832. The addresses and biographies of more than 2,400 of these are given in the book. Three hundred and ninety-one of the graduates are reported as dead. No information, the book says, could be obtained in regard to 2,961 graduates. Graduates of the university are requested to send their names, addresses and facts as to their life to Mr. Pardee, at No. 410

East Twenty-sixth st. The catalogue, which is the first one published since 1879, is tastefully bound. Dean Pardee has presented copies to the members of the council and officers of the
